La Riflessione, 2010. Book. Book Condition: New. 202 x 142 mm. Language: N/A. Brand New Book. Questo libro, in cui l'autore si interroga sul senso più profondo della vita, narra una vicenda reale. In queste pagine si racconta l'intreccio di due destini, apparentemente preordinato da una volontà superiore ed insondabile. Un ragazzo, dato per morto, si risveglia dal coma tra l'incredulità e lo stupore dei medici e comincia ad avere sogni ricorrenti. In questi sogni compare una ragazza, bella e sincera, che ha bisogno del suo aiuto perché gravemente malata. Una ragazza, subito dopo il matrimonio contratto in giovanissima età, scopre di essere affetta da un male terribile, la sclerosi multipla. I due protagonisti, marito e moglie, lottano insieme contro un male inesorabile, sorretti dalla fede e, come sembravano profetizzare i sogni fatti in gioventù, lui si prende cura di lei, dedicandosi totalmente a questa missione. L'immenso desiderio, da parte di lei, di generare un figlio a cui dare nome Francesco, è reso impossibile dalle gravi condizioni in cui versa. L'interruzione della gravidanza e questo bambino mai nato, per cui sarebbe stata disposta a donare la vita, la segneranno profondamente. Anche quando il male sembra regnare incontrastato e la protagonista è immobilizzata a letto, incapace di parlare o di muovere un solo dito per ben dodici anni, tra i due continua un dialogo profondo, fatto di sguardi che comunicano gioia di vivere e dignitosa accettazione delle sofferenze.
