Through the windows of the palace large forests of masts of an immense fleet were visible, while the cold wind was moaning, sending now and then to the windows hail, snow and rain. The door suddenly flew open, a dashing and handsome man, above forty, with a scar on his forehead, in a military dress covered with numerous decorations, entered the room, and in a moment the beautiful lady with the little girl were in his arms. The gentleman was evidently much attached to both, because he petted them alternately, and while giving kisses to the elder lady, took the little girl on his knees. Why do you come so late to-day? the little girl said to the military gentleman, playing with his orders. Do you know, added she, that to-day is my dear Mamma...
