Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Poultry and Egg Situation: November, 1942 Reflecting the heavy marketings of both fowl and heavy young chickens, storage holdings of poultry were increased M6 million pounds during October. On November 1 total stocks of poultry were 26 percent larger than a year earlier and by far the largest on record for that date. The into-storage move ment since November 1 has continued at record levels. Stocks of fowls, rquasters and turkeys were increased by the largest amounts on record during October. Stocks of turkeys do not usually reach the seasonal low point until November 1. The net into-storage movement in October this year, however, was nearly h - l/2 million pounds.
