Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What happens when an old flame that never quite flickered all the way out threatens to flare back up hotter than ever? Can this really be anything but trouble? Billy and Maureen were high school sweethearts who had every intention of getting married, raising a family, and living happily ever after together-until Billy shattered that dream one warm summer night in a reckless act of betrayal that tore them apart. Now, ten years after their bitter split, Billy is suddenly popping back up in Maureen's life once again and making declarations of the love he says he never lost for her, and how is she supposed to react? For the truth is, she never fully lost her love for him, either. And being a lonely widow with two children now has all the potential for making her especially vulnerable to his advances. And yet, she knows without a doubt that to give in to her own stirring desires is a guaranteed recipe for disaster, for Billy is still very much married with three kids of his own. And to get back the one true love of her life, then, would mean turning herself into a total home wrecker, and is she really prepared to go that far? God, love shouldn't be this complicated.
