The purpose of this book is to provide a rational respond to the enormous right-wing echo chamber that inundates the airways with self-serving misinformation that obstructs the truth regarding progressivism, its initiatives, political ideology, and pragmatic application implemented by the Obama administration and Democrats in Congress. The book endeavors to present Americans with a choice between the overwhelming distortions and misinformation of the toxic right and appeals to consensus, inclusiveness, and socioeconomic justice desired by most Americans. This work consists of numerous analyses, commentaries, and interpretations of the efforts of some Americans to use fear, bias, and money to continue to extract or loot from the public tax dollars to gain untold wealth and power at the expense of the neediest Americans and the middle-class. At the time of the completion of this book, the greediest and wealthiest Americans and their surrogates were close to sealing the Republican nomination for Mitt Romney (R-MA), one of the nations most prominent vultures capitalist who formerly headed Bain Capital a leading equity buy-out firm. Romney a former moderate governor transformed into an extreme conservative with a tax cut plan that would radically shift the tax burden to the middle-class and poor while making historic cuts to the taxes of the wealthiest Americans. His ultra-conservative fiscal policies and adherence to extreme social conservative values is designed to appeal to the Republican Partys far right-wing base. Unscrupulously, he is willing to say anything to win the highest office. The book examines his candidacy, among others, for the Republican nomination and explains the dangers his and competing candidates and positions exposed to the majority and democracy itself. The problem is not simply his flip-flops on issues to...
