The story centers on Joseph David Hamilton, a convicted white collar criminal, who as part of an early parole agreement takes the job as office manager of a nearly bankrupt walk-in clinic in an isolated upstate NY community. This clinic; this town; the whole surrounding valley is home to many peculiar individuals, with some very off-beat diversions. One of which is a simple game of Geetha, a fiercely contested sport unique to the area, which at one time required the carcass of a moose. As bankruptcy draws closer, and a re-born tournament plays out, Joseph will be called upon to use his financial acumen and physical talents to overcome many obstacles as the clinic and he attempt to regain their footing. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
