

Return from Hell (Paperback)

By Cyril Greenham

Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Return From Hell takes the reader on a journey that spans forty-one years of the author s life - December 28, 1945 to August 28, 1987 - the former, the date of his birth; the latter, the day he took his last drink of alcohol! Even though this book is an ultra purely soul-baring, no holds barred, impossible to put down memoirs of his struggle with the disease of alcoholism - and eventual freedom from it s surreptitiously controlling grip - it is also interspersed with bits of philosophy, psychiatry, psychology and religion; and is written with a humor and rhythm that; even though a more than serious issue is being dealt with, make for very interesting reading. Variations on the core theme give us - especially in the early chapters - a captivating account of the author s early years, and will certainly give cause for thought about what would seem like the ideal environment for his later-in-life addiction. The author emphasizes the stigmatization that is still rampant with respect to alcoholism and argues that one of the best ways...
