After Olive's controversial, award-winning essay is published in the local newspaper, she receives threats from a stranger. When intimidation escalates to hate crime, can Olive find victory through God's brand of love? Will the local police figure it out before someone she loves gets hurt by the mysterious stranger who wants to silence her voice? But that's not all she has to deal with. When Olive's aunt gets engaged, the joy is evident until her aunt realizes that prince charming isn't perfect. As her aunt's struggles worsen, the tension puts pressure on every member of Olive's family. When it comes to her first crush, Olive is still confused. How does God want her to deal with their budding relationship? Is there any choice that won't result in Olive's broken heart? Olive is more desperate than ever to understand real love.
