Everything you know, everything you think you know, and everything you have heard up to this point about advertising and marketing are wrong. Some common misconceptions that are wrong: I have to just get my name out there I need name recognition I have to run my newspaper ad 21 times before people will respond to it I need to build brand awareness There is no way to measure my results with advertising I shouldn t worry about the results of advertising If people see my logo 500 times, they ll eventually come buy from me If any of that sounds familiar, you have been lied to.
