Where institutional finance failed Microfinance delivered. In a country like India, where almost 70 per cent of the population is in the rural areas, with little or no access to main stream financing options, microfinance has a huge role to play and a huge population to uplift. The paper discusses the present scenario of microfinance Institutions (MFIs) in India. In spite of the impressive figures, the supply side of microfinance in India is still presently abhorrently inadequate to fill the fissure between demand and supply but it holds the promise to act as a great opportunity for the financial sector and the economy as a whole. 28 pp. Englisch.
