By Nick Gillespie, Matt Welch

INGRAM PUBLISHER SERVICES US, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. These incurably upbeat journalists with Reason magazine believe that not even government, try as it will, can prevent onrushing social improvement, . The Declaration of Independents is suitable reading for this summer of debt-ceiling debate, which has been a proxy for a bigger debate, which is about nothing less than this: What should be the nature of the American regime? ,George Will, Washington Post The Declaration of Independents is a refreshing political book in that it kind of, well, hates politics, and it's worth reading on this issue alone, . An important read with solid insight into today's political mess. , RealClearPolitics This is the up-to-date statement of libertarianism. Not warmed-over right-wing politics, but real, true-blooded libertarianism in the sense of loving liberty and wanting to find a new path toward human flourishing. ,Tyler Cowan, Marginal Revolution.
