Summary - Linnet: Brimming with sweet innocence, dutiful and obedient Linnet felt like a caged bird as sole lady of Castle Radwell and daughter of its Norman lord. Then she spied the elusive golden-haired stranger in her father's great hall and her fantasies took flight. Here was the hero to steal her breath away and inspire her wild, wild dreams. Only after he had scaled the battlements to enter her chamber did she realize he was her father's sworn enemy, the infamous Eagle, and he had swooped down to take her captive.
