

Darkness After Midnight: The Second in the Series from Tabula Rasa (Paperback)

By MR John F Russo

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Poignantly brutal from the harsh African lands notoriously known for their complete disregard of women s rights and human dignity. Lives wasted for the profiteering of a few for mineral rights of a country at war with itself. Millions have been displaced, tens of thousands have been murdered and raped, the innocence of children have been stripped from them, and forced into military slavery by civil conflict created by two men, who took an oath to protect and uphold the constitution of this adolescent country of only four years, South Sudan. Lt. William Billy Clark had to make a decision and then live by it as he was sent in to eliminate one of the warring factions. An over-compelling fear of being set up made his choice, and then he took to the heartland as he was hunted down as a governmental escape goat by PAG. His loner life changed when he met Maysa , a young woman who had been banished from her village after being raped by an elder and together they forged through, saving thousands of lives...
