Page Publishing, Inc., 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Thirteen young people, all college students, were arrested in 1944 in Moscow by the Soviet State security. They were charged with an attempt to assassinate Stalin. All of them were sentenced to different terms of forced labor in GULAG and three of them paid with their lives. A participant and a survivor of this affair, Victor Levenstein, tells us about this so called case in his memoir. The majority of the arrested were children of the enemies of the People - their parents were victims of Stalin's purges of nineteen thirties. Their friendship began in the early school years in the privileged school in Moscow, where children of Stalin, Molotov and Soviet cultural elite were among the students. The State security learned about this group of independently thinking young people and fabricated a case of The anti-Soviet terrorist youth group planning comrade Stalin's assassination. During the investigation the majority of the arrested were subjected to the physical and psychological torture. They confessed to the anti-Soviet activity and seven of them to the preparation of the assassination of Stalin. Interrogators concocted an adventure story of the assassination preparations featuring an apartment from the window of which the villains were going to shoot Stalin. The book tells us about the interrogations in the infamous Lubyanka, State Security prison where Mr. Levenstein and his friends spent almost a year. The machinery of the interrogation techniques is described in detail, explaining how they were forced to implicate themselves. We learn about the life in interrogation and transitional prisons, labor camps and exile, about the fascinating people the author came across on his journey. One of them was Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, whom the author met at Ekibastus...
