Douglas the Dragon symbolises the power of love. A young orphaned dragon is found and adopted by a young boy and becomes a much-loved dragon in the village. When the boy is killed by a volcano, the dragon is eventually evicted from the community. The dragon spends 50 years in exile sitting upon his volcano of hate and getting angrier and angrier- until his anger explodes and he seeks revenge. Old age and death are stages in a person s life that all children find difficult concepts to understand, but this is eased considerably when death is associated with the concept of rebirth. At a time of separation, bereavement or loss, children become more isolated, non-communicative and vulnerable. Allow Douglas to help them live again through his own experiences of illness and near death. Douglas negotiates the life stages of being orphaned, adopted, accepted, loved, rejected, feared, outcast, reformed and then made redundant. He leaves his beloved village and past to seek a new way of life, and finds an angry female dragon whom he eventually changes with his love, returns to his beloved village, marries her and starts a family of baby dragons. By 1971, I had founded the process upon which all Anger Management groups would thereafter follow and freely gave this knowledge to the world. Within the space of two years, Anger Management (a phrase that I coined), had mushroomed across the English speaking world. After 25 years of researching and specialising in Anger Management, Relaxation Training, Behaviour Modification and Stress Management, I started writing children s books. My primary purpose of writing for children was to convey to them...
