Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A random act of nature changed Mason s life forever. He lost his parents on that fateful day, even his memories of them. But he gained something in return. Mason has the ability to mind slide, the ability to project his consciousness. He can be anywhere in the world. Watching. Listening. Despite being raised in a government lab, Mason has put a life together for himself. He uses his ability to work as a private investigator, specializing in missing children. He even has a crush on a woman. Kelly tries to put that terrible night behind her. Kidnapped when she was a teenager, she still struggles to overcome the trauma. The details of her rescue were always a little sketchy. It was almost as if someone knew exactly where to find her. Mason is unlike any man she s ever met. To her surprise, she finds herself caring about him more than she ever thought possible. But he has secrets. Now someone is following them both, and he wants those secrets.
