

Between Two Streams: A Diary from Bergen-Belsen (Paperback)

By Abel J. Herzberg

I.B.Tauris Co. Ltd., United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. At the height of the Holocaust it was Nazi policy to preserve small groups of privileged Jews for possible use in exchanges with Allied-held German civilians. Held in the special Sternlager at Bergen-Belsen their privilege amounted to being kept alive rather than gassed. One such internee - Abel Herzberg, a Dutch lawyer and writer - managed, in the hell of Bergen-Belsen, to keep a diary which chronicles the horrific reality of daily existence in the camp. Among the passengers on the train that carried Herzberg both to Belsen and away from the camp a year later was a 9-year-old boy. That same boy - Jack Santcross - undertook to translate Herzberg's diary half a century later. The result is this unique eyewitness account of life in one of the most notorious Nazi concentration camps and a work of great historical importance.
