Elfin Creative. Paperback. Condition: New. 128 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. A Book of Re-Membering is a journal of self-discovery written during one mans journey to find healing, learn of knowledge, and come to a place in life where he would truly know God. Though it is a deeply personal work, the book is a parable. As such, beneath the surface of the story is an even deeper story about the reader finding wisdom within themselves. Book Introduction : : : Consciousness is birthed into form, with a veil of forgetfulness forming a barrier to the memory of time before. The blind embark on a journey with uncertainty. Challenges confront. The way is lost. Or so it appears. But Spirit is in control though truth has been labeled myth and theory labeled fact, though we have been stripped of knowledge and have been fooled by the false prophets of belief everything is as it should be. Collectively we are learning. Even in our fallen and dismembered state, delusion gifts the lesson of discontentment. Ever, the seed that gestates within seeks union. An awakening is at hand. Slowly one begins to recall that which they already are. Clues emerge and...
