

Black Sam Fraunces: The Life and Times of a Revolutionary War Hero, Spy and Man of Color (Paperback)

By Rosemary J Palermo

Old Age Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What would you do if there was suddenly a civil war raging around you, where your family and friends took different sides? If it meant losing your business, clients and friends would you speak up or stay quiet? Would you find a safe place to go with your family or volunteer to spy? This is a story about those hard choices and the people who made them. How did Sam save Washington from assassination - twice? Why did Sam live a secret life as a spy for years? New Information solves the mystery: Was Sam White or Black? This is a story about an ordinary man who did extraordinary things, not in the heat of a moment, but under threat of death for years. His courageous acts saved the American Revolution several times. He was a successful Black man in a time of Slavery and great prejudice. He deserves to be remembered as the hero he was.
