Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from An Address Delivered on the 5th April, 1855, Before the Senatus and Students of Queen's College on Conferring the Degree of Doctor of Medicine For some years past, it has been thought desirable, on many accounts, that Medicine should be taught as a branch of education in this University. Somewhat more than a year ago, not a few men, distinguished for their wisdom and learning, and ardent friends of the country, came to the conclusion, that the time had arrived when this should be attempted. You are aware that this scheme has been, so far, carried into effect. It requires time, and many appliances fairly at work, ere one can speak with certainty of the success of such an undertaking. Yet, when I think of the geographical Situation of Kingston, of the advantages the medical student may derive from the classes in the College, and, above all, of the high talents and great diligence of the gentlemen of the Medical Faculty, I cannot but cherish strong hopes of the ultimate success of this undertaking. Let us hope, that as...
