Jame Shirley - The Doubtful Heir: Death Lays His Icy Hand on Kings. Scepter and Crown Must Tumble Down (Paperback)

By Jame Shirley

On Demand Publishing, LLC-Create Space, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . James Shirley was born in London in September 1596. His education was through a collection of England s finest establishments: Merchant Taylors School, London, St John s College, Oxford, and St Catharine s College, Cambridge, where he took his B.A. degree in approximately 1618. He first published in 1618, a poem entitled Echo, or the Unfortunate Lovers. As with many artists of this period full details of his life and career are not recorded. Sources say that after graduating he became a minister of God s word in or near St Albans. A conversion to the Catholic faith enabled him to become master of St Albans School from 1623-25. He wrote his first play, Love Tricks, or the School of Complement, which was licensed on February 10th, 1625. From the given date it would seem he wrote this whilst at St Albans but, after its production, he moved to London and to live in Gray s Inn. For the next two decades, he would write prolifically and with great quality, across a spectrum of thirty plays; through tragedies and comedies...
