Organic MD Media, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .At eighteen this rebel street kid found herself in Federal prison for stealing a car. When a new program gave her the chance for an outside day job while still in prison, she took it along with the opportunity for clandestine lovemaking in a cheap hotel with fellow prisoner. She was caught, stripped of her privileges. She also was pregnant. That brought a parole and a devastating betrayal-the price of her freedom was giving up her unborn child for adoption. Out of prison, she plunged into the heady world of radical antiwar politics, playing and partying through the wild world of the late sixties in San Francisco. Until recurring headaches drove her to seek medical help. Sorry, we can't find any tumors, they said. However, you are going blind. Oh yes, it's incurable, irreversible, and hereditary. She was twenty-three. She bore a second child, a son. He would probably go blind, too. That made her mad and changed her life. No, by God, he wouldn't go blind! This is the true story of Grace Halloran, a survivor, a person who gets things done against all odds. She tells how she, a blind mother, raised her son. She recounts the step-by-step process of intuition and serendipity that led to her developing unorthodox therapies which finally reversed her irreversible disease and reversed it in others, as well! What? The official scientific/medical community was incensed. How dare she! She tells about her growing reputation. She gave classes. People from all over the world came to her, and she went all over the world. Her stories of helping people to see again are poignant. One thing is clear: she loves these people. She cares, and...
