

Civil War: Socialism and Me (Paperback)

By Si Green

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Civil war The year is 2006, socialism is rife and money is being poured down the drains by the government on its vanity projects. The only person who seems to matter is the guy at the top dreaming up the plans and creating yet another office of uselessness. Teenagers are out of control, single women are getting pregnant for the easy benefits, and the government is paying people not to work. Anarchy is rife. Yet in the madness, the crazy laws, the stupid values, One man has a quest to put things right, one man has an urge to fight for what is good, for what is proper, for what makes sense, whilst punishing what is bad and what is wrong. One man, with the aid of plastic explosive aims to put things right, not just for himself, but for everyone, for the entire human race, and no stone will be overlooked in his quest for justice, common sense and common values.
