Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . One failed marriage and one failed business did not stop Eureka from reaching her goals and dreams again. She remarried the same man the second time and together they are building a successful marriage, a successful family, a successful relationship, and a successful business. This book is full of rewarding exercises to help you to focus intellectually and clear distractions while opening your heart, mind, and soul to success. What is success? For some, success means owning a big house, driving a fancy car, and going on exotic vacations. For several, success may look like having inner peace, an abundance of love and happiness, and living a life of integrity. To simply know that you have the power within you to be alive, do, and create anything in your life is giving yourself permission to be the brilliant, radiant, magnificent, and divine individual you were chosen to be. Taking ownership means not creating excuses; not blaming others, and not using your past or circumstances as reasons why you are not capable of being successful. When you know who/whose you are and can still love all of you, both your light and past darkness, you can own who you are. Taking ownership and being responsible for what you think, what you say, and what you do is vital to truly being successful. Remember success starts and begins with you. People often ask, How do you find your purpose? Your purpose is not hiding under a rock. You don't need to search for it because it has always been with you. You were born with a precise purpose the day you were created. Eureka found that she is the most active when she...
