Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from State of Connecticut Register and Manual, 1952: Prepared Pursuant to Section 173, of the General Statutes, Revision of 1949 Although the book has been expanded and improved with the normal evolution and expansion of government services, it still retains its historic favor and significance. As a reference book it is as factual and accurate as possible, and we are grateful to our predecessors in office for the careful structure and background which form the basis of this publication. We are also extremely appreciative for the Splendid and painstaking cooperation given us in obtaining current information from a great number of individuals and organizations. As Secretary of State. Responsible for the publication of the Register and Manual, I extend my sincere thanks to the many state officials and private citizens who have so willingly helped in the preparation of our material. We are particularly pleased with the favorable comment on the section which features the Great Seal of Connecticut, the Armorial Bearings and other traditional symbols and emblems of our state. We are grateful also to the staff of our Publications Division whose competence, and conscientious industry, are responsible for the professional makeup and accuracy of this Connecticut Register and Manual for 1952.
