Psyche, Eros, and Me weaves Deanna McKinstry-Edwards life as an actress, singer, scholar and woman through the myth of Psyche and Eros. It is a poignant and deeply powerful story. Armed with an artist s equipment, Deanna also has the psychologist s ability to analyze her life choices and ultimately to follow her intuition home to Eros. The myth of Psyche and Eros is Deanna s Virgil, the steadfast companion who guides her through the Dark Wood. It is a journey many artists make. A poetic writer, Deanna has a gift for expressing meaning with humor. This book is a triumphant read. One blustery day in Carmel, the story of two mythical beings blew into my life. Psyche and Eros. Stories often find us when we need them. At a time when much was disappearing and falling apart in my life, the story of Psyche and Eros became a soul map. Engaging the death defying tasks Psyche must accomplish to behold Eros once again, her tale became a powerful guide for the journey a woman often takes to discover and sustain a deepening sense of self and sovereignty, and a voice she can call her own. --Deanna Psyche, Eros and Me is very provocative, well written, and I think a book that can help women to examine their own story and find its hidden depths and meaning. --Ellen Burstyn, Academy Award winning Actress ABOUT THE AUTHOR Deanna McKinstry-Edwards is a professional actress, singer, writer, lecturer, and Pushcart...
