Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 244 x 184 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .HAVING TROUBLE 1. in the introductory college accounting course OR 2. in your job due to a lack of accounting knowledge? If the answer is yes to either of the above, this book is for you since it is the easiest, most logical way to learn what debit/credit accounting is all about and how it works. The book begins by explaining why debit/credit accounting exists and what its underlying concepts are. The logic stemming from these concepts is then used throughout the book to explain how debit/credit procedures are implemented and how the financial statements result. The book will appeal to those who prefer learning through logical conceptual reasoning and application as opposed to rote memorization.
