Xulon Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This Christian nonfiction book answers the question is once saved always saved? There still remains confusion around the topic of salvation and redemption, and Christian believers should understand this important foundation of God s relationship with us. Through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the author wants to use biblical support to explore salvation. Perfect for a Bible study or a group book club, the book discusses angels, sin, God s nature, rebellion, adoption as a child of God, immortality, righteousness, Satan, the Devil, favor with God, redeemed children of God, God s love, God s will, and sacrifice. Examining scripture for evidence of answers, the book uses biblical verses to find out the truth about being saved and born again. Sin separated man from the kingdom of God. God s grace will cover sin, but deliberate sin will not be forgiven. Grace transforms lives once repented. Cleansing takes place by the redeeming blood of Jesus Christ.
