Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Equitania or the Land of Equity For years it has seemed to me that each person should do the things that he believes will be the very best for the human race. So that each should put in writing, or some imperishable form, his best thoughts out of an honest heart according to his ability and experience for the help of those who follow. If he can live it out in every day practical life, so much the better and the more impressive and helpful are the truths thus taught by precept and example. If therefore one sets down in order the truth upon any subject, as he sees it, even though it may not be the ultimate truth, yet it may be a stepping-stone for his successor, who, following this light until he sees a brighter and better, may arise to a higher viewpoint and nearer the truth, until at last someone following in these steps will arrive at the desired goal, which he might not have reached except for these aids along the way. He is the inspired man who sees ultimate truth at first hand without having been aided thus by his fellowmen; so that the most truth is left for mankind to build into a sublime structure in this manner, by each doing his part and carrying the investigation along as far as he can, and then leaving the record in some tangible form to be handed down to others. Even as Socrates taught his disciples and Confucius taught his followers, and Jesus gave ultimate truth to his, which teachings were recorded in the writings of men who followed them, and...
