THE THREE RULES OF THE SPIRITUAL UNIVERSE: CHOOSE AN AUTHENTIC CENTER THAT LEADS TO HEAVEN (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . There is only one decision that amounts to anything, when your life is done, and you stand before God awaiting your fate. There will be no words spoken because God does not use words but rather the language of love. God is the Word (see John 1:1) and you are standing in front of pure energy. When I think about this possibility, I think of three questions that I believe God will expect me to have answered. 1.What is the purpose of life? (What is God s center?) 2.What is the purpose of my life? (What is your center?) 3.What did you do to make this purpose happen where you live? (How did God s Center enable you to know, love, and serve God?) You will answer these questions, not by what you say, but by what you have become. Having a center and maintaining it are two different sets of behaviors. Revolving centers are those that come and go. For example, we love God, but we are weak and stray away, then we get guilty and return. There is a revolving cycle of behavior. Here is the important part. You are free to choose any center you want. Free choice is what separates humans from all other animals. Humans have our own playground, the mental universe. God loved us with unconditional love so much, that he even sent his Son to tell us a better way to center ourselves on what is meaningful, and how to keep our centers aligned with God s will. Using these three rules of the spiritual universe will help you choose an authentic center, gives a perspective that keeps you focused on what is true,...
