Reviews

Basically no terms to clarify. It can be written in basic terms instead of difficult to understand. I am easily could get a enjoyment of reading through a composed publication.

Passing of the regent s examination in Typewriting. The reasons for establishing this class are: (1) To correlate the subjects of Stenography and Typewriting. (2) To afford opportunities for practice for those girls who have already completed their Stenography or Typewriting and sometimes both, and who would otherwise have been without an opportunity for keeping up their speed during the balance of their stay in the high school. (3) To assist various members of the faculty with their clerical work. This co-operative class is divided into two groups, known as group A and group B. A girl from each group is assigned to one or more members of the faculty. The first week, the girls assigned in group A do the work of the teacher to whom they have been assigned, while group B reports to the regular class recitation for dictation and transcription. The following week, the procedure is reversed. The girls usually meet the members of the faculty before the morning recitations begin or at some other suitable time. The work, given to the girls by the teachers, is then brought to class during the regular typewriting period. The group not assigned for the particular week reports in a detached room for the first third of the period for dictation given by the teacher in charge of the class. This is then transcribed on the machine during the balance of the period. Hardly a day passes when some student is not...
