Paperback. Condition: New. 58 pages. Daniel Defoe visited the city of Glasgow in the 18th Century, and later, in his book A Tour Thro the Whole Island of Great Britain, he described it as the cleanest and beautifulest, and best built city in Britain, London excepted. In modern times, a few days in this vibrant, cosmopolitan, European city, will prove that Defoes words are still both valid and accurate. Previously viewed as a working class centre for industry, the citys inclusion in the Lonely Planets 2008 list of Top 10 World Cities, confirmed the success of its transformation into one of the greatest cities in Europe. This city has everything you could want including some of the best shopping in Europe, great bars and restaurants to please any palate, an abundance of museums and theatres, great architecture and some seriously friendly locals. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
