Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Living History Classroom, Vol. 5: An Educational Service of the Tryon Palace Historic Sites and Gardens; November 1996 September-october-november: If you re looking for an in-depth special program or just want your class to experience eighteenth century life at a leisurely pace, consider a fall field trip to Tryon Palace. From mid-september through November, second graders can find math and science lessons in the gardens during the Young Sprouts program, while fourth to sixth-graders can try their hands at eighteenth-century crafts in Colonial Skills. In addition to the basic guided tours of the historic sites, teachers can also sign up their classes for the Who Was I? Information scavenger hunt at the New Bern Academy, or the Stepping into History role-play program for middle-schoolers. Fall Visit Tips: Since many social studies texts cover colonial America in the first units, you can plan your visit to be either an introduction to or a culmination of your colonial studies. And since weather can be variable, check the New Bern-area forecasts a day ahead to let students know how to dress for the...
