MY DADDY IS BIGGER: FROM THE EYES OF A CHILD (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My Daddy is Bigger: From the Eyes of a Child, tells a true story of a five year old little African American girl who moved from a really warm climate in the great state of Florida to the ice cold northern state of Michigan when her father got a new preaching job. As she grew older, she had big dreams and high hopes of traveling the world and becoming a wife and mother. She did it. She became a military wife, mother, bible school teacher, public speaker, small business owner, and now an author. She shares fascinating memories of her wise, tenderhearted, and loving father. She shares how he taught her about God, which shaped her life and allowed her to see God the Father as her ultimate Biggest Daddy of the Universe, referred to as her BDU. She chronicles her memories in such a way that children can learn about life and relate to the wonders and explorations of a child. Parents and grandparents can learn valuable lessons about what children really think about their parents and how it can affect them as they grow older. In the end, faith, hope, love, and forgiveness conquers all fear and pain from the inner most thoughts, dreams, and imaginations of a child. Come read through the pages as she recounts the twists and turns of her life growing up as a preacher s kid (PK). If you want to read a very positive, uplifting, authentic, and encouraging book, then this book is for you. Families matter. Buy it now.
