WW Norton Co, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Praised for his beautifully crafted and strangely surreal (Peter Matthiessen) stories, Terrence Holt had been operating under the literary radar for more than fifteen years, placing award-winning stories in such noted journals as Zoetrope, Kenyon Review, and TriQuarterly. With the release of this debut collection, Holt s work takes its rightful place besides those works of genius-fiction, philosophy, theology-unafraid of axing into our iced hearts (William Gibaldi, New York Times Book Review). Whether chronicling a plague that ravages a New England town or the anguish of a son who keeps his father s beating heart in a jar, Holt s stories oscillate between the rational and the surreal, the future and the past, masterfully weaving together reality and myth. Like Poe or Hawthorne, Holt is a gifted wordsmith, his sentences carefully shaped and often beautiful, and he spins these ancient, irresolvable dilemmas in an elegiac poetry (Los Angeles Times).
