

A Season in Purgatory Villanova and Life in College Football's Lower Class

By Tony Moss

Bison Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 333 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. At a school where basketball is king, the Villanova football team battles opponents both on and off the field. Low on cash and recruiting power, the Division I-AA Wildcats must constantly justify their existence to a prestigious academic institution and the students and alumni who bemoan the team's minor league status. This story of Villanova's 2005 season is an inside account of a football program wading through the political mire to bring glory to a school largely indifferent to its efforts. Through the Wildcats experience, Tony Moss explores the inner workings of college football, particularly the chasm between Division I-A, home of the most visible, successful programs, and Division I-AA, where crowds are smaller but competition is just as intense. As alumni and faculty question the cost of funding sixty-three football scholarships and a full-time coaching staff, Moss leaves us to decide whether the struggle is worth the cost to schools outside the spotlight and whether the game has any inherent value apart from the bottom line. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
