Jewel Dell. Paperback. Condition: New. 168 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. But how do you draw people ask. Rather badly now, I reply. Some days my vision is patchy. Bits are missing. To focus on a particular part of the page I stand and angle my head. Both actions become extremely tiring and uncomfortable. The Trabbed eye leaks. Pausing to blink I wipe. Now wheres the pen gone I search. Using several pens to give thick or thin lines means there are always pens around. I search. Eventually a start is made. By now my neck is getting a crick, my minds eye which holds the outline I want temporarily gives up. Making for the kitchen I pour another coffee. Its all too easy to put off the moment of truth. I do not want to face this fact. I cannot now illustrate with competency, but I WILL DRAW SOMETHING. My soul craves absolution that I still can. It is a challenge! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
