Wisdom Tree, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Learning to manage emotions is vital, regardless of whether it is in one's personal or professional life. Especially in one's professional life, learning to work through challenging situations, difficult conversations, and handling professional relationships without betraying any feelings or emotions is extremely important. This book focuses on teaching young professionals how to manage their emotions to perform better at the workplace. Situations that can upset a person's emotional balance occur all too frequently at work, and the techniques taught in this book can help the reader maintain a level head while facing such difficult situations. Drawing on the wisdom of the Panchatantra and Indian philosophy, And The Lion Smiled At The Rabbit: Manage Emotions to Win shows readers how to improve their emotional intelligence. The author explores the reasons behind how a rabbit manages to fool a lion in a tale from The Panchatantra. In the tale, the rabbit uses the lion's trait of pride to make the lion lose control over its capacity to think, forcing it to just react. There and other such tales are woven cleverly with modern management theories to provide a refreshing perspective on emotional balance and...
