Reviews

This ebook is definitely not straightforward to start on looking at but really enjoyable to learn. It usually will not charge excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt from Right and Wrong, in Mansfield, Mass: Or an Account of Pro-Slavery Mob of October 10th, 1836: When an Anti-Slavery Lecturer Was Silenced by the Beat of Drums, C. With Some Reasoning in Favor of Emancipation Mr. Burleigh is employed by the American Anti Slavery Society as their Agent to lecture in favor of emancipation. He had a right to lecture. The God of heaven gives him that right, and we have a right to hear. No man or body of men has a right to take it away. It is inalienable. The Constitution of this state and of the United States recognizes this right, and any attempt to take it away is a violation of the laws of God and our Country. We have, therefore, been most grossly insulted. Liberty is down in Mansfield, unless its inhabitants exert themselves for its restoration. Some think it best to call a Town Meeting to take the minds of the people upon the subject. To see if the majority are willing to aid in the restoration of our lost liberties, or wish to tolerate and acquiesce in such proceedings. If we are willing to set tamely and submissively under the triumphs of mob-law, then indeed we are fit to become slaves to southern nabobs.
