A Shed, Chickens, Siencyn and Me is a delightfully light humorous book set in a 1930s South Wales valley. It is written through the perceptive eyes of a young girl, Megan and it is where we meet her family and the characters of the village, such as, Mrs Hughes News, Mr William Lewis Amen, Selwyn the Psalms, Auntie Scissors Ann, a girl with pimples and a sniffle and Megans favourite, - Siencyn Oddjobs (pronounced Shenkin; as there is no J for Jenkins in the Welsh alphabet)! Siencyn lived in a shed on the side of a hill; this was good for three things, to look after his chickens, to tend his allotment and to keep away from his wife. He smoked OPs (other peoples), never complained and always got out of trouble with a smile and a wink. He was not on time for work one morning and when caught slopping off early in the afternoon his boss shouted, Mr Jenkins, bearing in mind what time you arrived this morning, what time do you call this to be leaving He...
